Second Largest First Tee Program in the Country

GOALS – Providing resources and opportunities for children and ultimately benefiting the community by helping to create good citizens is what TFTD strives to do. The values-based programs reward responsible behavior, provide character development, and provide a fun engaging sport alternative that youth can benefit from for a lifetime.

ON-COURSE

Classes and Camps—The First Tee uses golf to teach youth ages 4 to 18 life lessons and leadership skills. Teaming up with experts in positive youth development, The First Tee helps youth become good golfers and even better people.

Year-Round Advanced Birdie Classes—Classes are designed for those juniors that are ready to take their games to the next level and play high school or college golf. These classes are typically small and allow for more advanced one-on-one instruction.

Players' Club—Play and compete in a team format while continuing to receive weekly instruction from a qualified coach! Each week there will be a Par 3, 9-hole, and 18-hole tournament that rotate from course to course.

Junior Coach Youth Employment—The First Tee of Denver's Junior Coach Program was created for young adults to help model and teach the nine core values to our younger participants as well as give them job skills. The program allows us to reduce the ratio of instructors to participants, so we can ensure that all of the participants are getting the most out of our classes.

IN-SCHOOL

Read 'n' Swing—Volunteers and staff are paired with students in small groups to read. After reading, there is a golf activity or game. Students in this program have shown improved reading scores compared to their peers.

In-School PE Classes—Our qualified instructors go into local schools and teach our curriculum and life skills to students. This allows us to get kids involved in our program who otherwise may not have the opportunity to play golf.

National Schools Program—In elementary schools in our community and across the United States, many students are teeing off for the first time thanks to The First Tee National School Program. The First Tee National School Program gives gym teachers and physical educators the tools to teach golf to their students during class time.

Club Building—Students learn how to build their own golf clubs from scratch using STEM based techniques. After the class they keep the clubs that they made so they can continue to play.

LEADERSHIP

Peer Mentoring—The First Tee of Denver partners high school students with younger at-risk kids. Mentors are provided the tools, the voice, and the opportunity to make a positive impact in the lives of their mentees each month.

Youth Leadership Council—The purpose of this group is to serve as the leadership group for The First Tee of Denver participants, and provide input for programming from the participants’ perspective.

National Opportunities—The First Tee junior golf program doesn’t just get kids on the course, it offers them exciting opportunities for growth. With the help of our corporate partners, we host a series of events to our more advanced participants, allowing them to meet new people, play some golf, achieve greatness, and show off our nine core values in action.
